

The background of the cover is a low-angle photograph. In the foreground, a tall, light-colored flagpole stands vertically. Several Spanish national flags are flying from the pole, their red, yellow, and white stripes and the national coat of arms clearly visible. To the right, a large, textured stone wall or structure rises, its surface showing the rough texture of the masonry. In the lower-left corner, the silhouette of a stone monument or sculpture is visible against the sky. The sky is a clear, bright blue with scattered white clouds. A red rectangular box is overlaid in the upper-left corner, containing the journal's title and issue number in white text.
