Handwritten marginal note on the left side of the page, possibly a reference or a correction.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the main body of the document. It appears to be a continuation of the narrative or list from the first block.

Handwritten marginal note on the left side, positioned between the second and third main blocks of text.

Third block of handwritten text, showing further entries or details within the document's content.

Handwritten marginal note on the left side, located below the third main block of text.

Fourth block of handwritten text, continuing the sequence of entries or information.

Fifth and final block of handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly concluding the document or a section.
