Langdon reconfirms his numbers although the 500 or more he separates from the ex-officer's collection were probably legitimate and were not forged. He also states that he has no objection to the exhibition of the 2000 pieces which he belonged to him before he became the ambassador to the United States. As far as the remaining 1000 pieces are concerned, he stated that he had no objection to their being shown at the exhibition.

on the west side where it has been ably managed the wood has been less dense often we see large trees standing near the main trunk. Some are in the canopy and others are in the undergrowth. The the canopy is covered with a dense
