On the first day of the month of June I received from the hands of the said Count of Castile the sum of one hundred and fifty marks of silver for the purchase of certain lands in the county of Salmeron. The said lands are situated in the parish of San Juan de los Rios and are bounded on the north by the lands of the Count of Castile, on the south
of Portugal, on the east
of Aragon, and on the west
by the lands of the Count of Castile. The said lands are to be held in fee simple by the Count of Castile and his heirs forever.
